Introduction.

Everybody has different ideas about what works and what doesn't. We are not all the same so each of us has to make informed choices along the way.

I am a published author not a marketer, but being an author who also publishes eBooks on the internet, no not normally anything to do with Marketing, but books like my weight off book, were you can see how grossly overweight I was after losing my 12 year old daughter to cancer when she was just 12, and I had cancer myself at the time, I lived but would rather that she had, but then that is how any parent would feel, it just isn't right to lose your children before you.

It is because I have had to learn how to do it all myself on the Internet, that I want to help others (you) in the situation that I was in when I started out to cut through the deadwood. I have helped loads of people as much as I can over the years to get their own books out there.

Oh, so many people have great stories to tell, and great books to write nothing gives me greater pleasure than when I see a friend, on or off the net become a published author and no that I helped them do it. It really gives me a BUZZ, I do hope my information will help you do the same, go on you no your want to!

I don't know if the free writer's gifts will still available, but try this link to get a really great selection of neat handy stuff you're going to love, be quick because the offer could vanish at any given moment? Click Here now to find out!

There are a number of courses about writing on the Internet; my favourite is

and my favourite program when I am writing a novel is and I believe it is one of the best value for money buys I have made on the net to date!

Click Here and judge for yourself,

I have been buying trying out and researching everything I could lay my hands on for over 18 years now, so I do no what is out there on the market place! I have spent a fortune, but it is up to you if you want to spend a fortune or take my word for it.

I will be bringing a book out later this year which will take anyone whose dream it is to become a published author, just how I have done it on and off the Internet. I am now a 55 year old granny, and I honestly believe that, if I can turn my life around from devastation to happiness and reach my goals then anyone can.

I have an email series you can sign up for free, the form is on my homepage Click Here , and you will find out a lot more about me there. I am one of those open book, open minded outspoken people, who go around with no fear stamped on my forehead, so I have found fallen into and hauled myself out of many holes, of course I have come popping straight back out stronger, more determined and become more successful due to it. You now have the advantage of my experiences, you don't have to fall down the holes I have over the years, you can side step them by seeing how I have done this.

At the very least you will now no the things I recommend have been tried and tested, that they actually do the job, laughing, you would be amazed at how many I have tried that do not live up to their hype, and I will not be recommending any of these to you, you deserve better, and I like to keep a good name!

Gregarious I might be, stupid I am not, well not all the time anyway, laughing, sorry I couldn't resist that, it is the British humour in me, Click here for a bit of my British humour just for fun!

How I do and you can do links within your eBook I bought a program that you can insert hyperlinks into your click here bits, but it is a little more complicated to use then some, having said that the price is right for $9.97 I have yet to find anything that does the job better just click on the banner and take a look for yourself!

You can open your book on word from within eWriterpro and then edit your links by hyperlinking them in.

You just simply select hyperlink and pop the relevant link in, so instead of having and unsightly http link you can have a click on link, of course you can then use whatever wording you like for people to click on and see in a separate box without having to leave your eBook to do so. Now I think this pays real dividend in some cases, appearance does matter to a lot of people.

If your not bothered about having your links showing in your eBook then the best program I have found which is very easy to use is pdf creator, a very user friendly to use PDF Creator program I simply downloaded the free trial version from this link Click Here: _

Loaded the software program onto my computer. Restarted my computer opened up the read me file after selecting it from my programs, read the instructions. Opened up an article file at random from within a word program, and produce a PDF file with it, all this took me less than ten minuets to do. All I had to do is to press my print button and select the PDF printer option and away it goes into a PDF file ready to upload, send by email or whatever I want to do with it!

This is another brilliant program I have used quite a lot. Take a look for yourself. Click Here to view.

I produced my eBook cover for this eBook:

I used a simple program called Cover Factory it is out of the crop for producing your own book covers; I use it all the time and can therefore personally recommend it. Here is the link if you want to take a look for yourself. Click Here:

Now most people like me or rather like I used to be reach this stage, then take a while to work out what to do next.

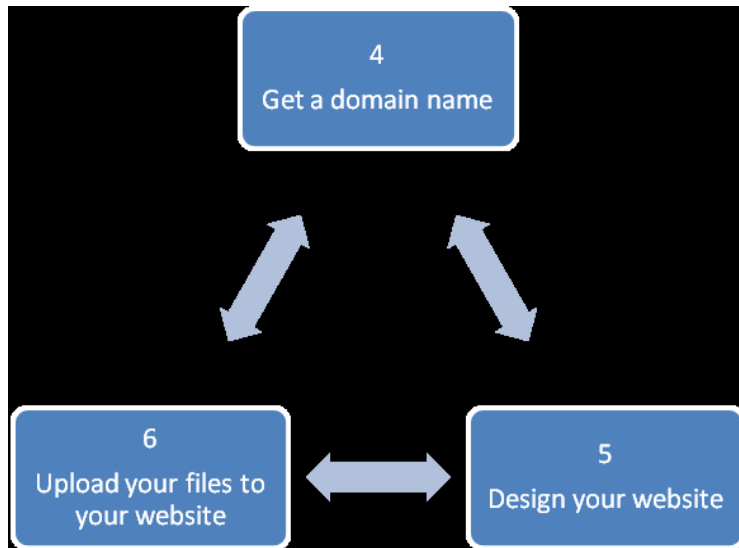

So what I am going to do is show you the steps that I take to make things happen and get my books out there.

Here are the basic steps.

OK, so you have probably completed some or all of the three steps below.

Next you have to 😊 At least this is the way I do it.

The number one place to get your Domain name is 123 Domain

Once you have got your Domain name from 123 Domain Reg you can either chose to design your own website, they even have a free hosting option with your Domain name at the time for writing this, and they are the cheapest I have found on the Internet so far! They have a simple to follow website design program and you can have your site up and running in no time.

Now in order to sell your eBooks or whatever on line you will need to produce a sales page and a thank you download page. I use a number of Squeeze page programs to produce these but I am a nice person so I am going to give you a link to collect a free one, just because you are reading this, and I know that some of you will be on a really tight budget just like I was when I first started out all those years ago. Click here to go to the download page. scroll down the page to Download.

Here is just one of the quick and easy programs I use for my article writing called Instant Article Wizard, check it out here
Tip: It is great for researching any subject. Click Here:

For an example this is one of my affiliate pages. Weight off affiliate page: <http://viralurl.com/tarbra/Weight-Off>

Well I do hope you succeed with your book, and that the information I have given you from my own research has helped you along the way or at least save you some time and funds . Please do let me know how you get on!

Parting Tips: Try going Viral to get traffic.

The eBook that has taught me the most over the years is Butterfly Marketing has the best marketing advice on the Internet. It really has been a brilliant investment! Click here Have fun, all the best, Linda Corby
